

User Story 1:

What is a VCS?

A VCS or Version Control Service is a Software used to automate the process of saving and versioning of a project. It also helps when working together on a project because it enables parallel working